Crowded Symmes Hospital To Be Enlarged; 102-Foot Addition To Provide 96 Instead Of 68 Beds

478 To Be Confirmed By Archbishop At 2 Parishes On Monday

His Eminence, Archbishop Richard D. Cushing, will pay an official visitation to two Arlington parishes Monday afternoon to confirm in the Catholic faith a total of 478 boys and girls.

The Archbishop will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to 88 boys and 105 girls at St. Agnes Church, at 3 o'clock, and then will confirm a class of 285 at St. James Church at 4 o'clock.

Large groups of parents are expected to be on hand to welcome the head of the Church in the Boston Archdiocese.

At St. Agnes, the Archbishop will be assisted by priests of the parish, and music will be rendered by pupils of Grade 9, with Mrs. Christopher Nolan at the organ. The choir will be directed by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

The musical program will be as follows:

Eccle Sacerdos Magnus, Gregorian; Veni Creator, Rosewig; Thou Power Divine, Berge; See the Paraclete Descending, St. Basil; Con-

Symmes Arlington Hospital, which quite frequently of late has been so crowded that patients have had to wait to be admitted, is to be enlarged with construction of a 102-foot addition.

The present capacity of 68 beds (64 adult, 4 children's) is to be increased to 96 beds, with an even greater expansion in facilities in the maternity and infant departments.

In formally making known plans for construction of a hospital addition this week, President Ernest W. Davis and Administrator E. Vernon Rich said:

The expansion will give to the communities of Arlington and Lexington, and institution of 96 beds and 39 bassinets for new born infants, (present capacity 64 adult, 4 children's beds, 15 bassinets).

Although the actual increase in patients' beds may appear small the new construction will give completely segregated and modern facilities in the children's ward and in obstetrics. These are the two departments which require the most attention.

The obstetrical service will have a normal capacity of 29 mother's with facilities for 36 new born infants, plus an isolation nursery for 4 babies.

Town Votes To Buy 300 Parking Meters

Three hundred parking meters will be in operation in Arlington's business districts within 60 days.

The selectmen on Monday voted to award a contract to the McGee-Hale Park-O-Meter Co., of Oklahoma City, for 300 meters at a cost, installed, of $61.50 each—or a total of $18,450.

The machines will be paid for out of receipts from the meters themselves, the arrangements being that 50 per cent of receipts be paid to the company until the purchase price is cleared.

The selectmen's decision as to type of meter was based on a unanimous recommendation submitted by a committee of five citizens.

Reserve Decision In Chief Tierney Case

The action instituted by Fire Capt. Thomas H. Egan to force the retirement on pension of Fire Chief Daniel B. Tierney finally was heard in Superior Court Wednesday afternoon.

Originally scheduled to be heard Tuesday, the case was postponed by press of other Court business, and it looked for awhile as if it might not be reached till next week.

On Wednesday, however, counsel for both sides agreed to dispense with witness and to limit the hearing to attorneys' arguments. Judge Thomas Dowd heard the Counsel at P. M.

Attorney John A. Daly, representing Capt. Egan, argued that under the law Chief Tierney, who is 73, should be placed on pension.

Town Counsel Russell T. Hamlet countered that under other state laws the selectmen may properly retain the Chief in service so long as he is able to discharge his duties.

The Court took the case under advisement.

Death Of Baby Boy Due To Suffocation

Following an autopsy on the body of baby Francis E. Lombard 3rd, aged seven weeks, of 11 Varnum St., who was found dead in his crib last week, Dr. David C. Dow, medical examiner, said this week that the baby's death was due to asphyxia from accidental suffocation.

The grieving mother of the infant, whose life firemen unsuccessfully tried to save by use of a resuscitator, wrote the Press this week:

"Dear sirs:-

"This is to ask you to correct the story printed regarding the death of beloved Baby Francis E. Lombard 3rd, regarding the cause of death. He was not strangled, as you will note from the report of the medical examiner, Dr. David C. Dow of Cambridge. Also, there were no buttons on his nightdress, therefore there was no top button to choke him."

An accompanying statement from Dr. Dow read:

"Dear Mrs. Lombard:-
"I did a careful autopsy on your infant son, Francis E. Lombard 3rd, and came to the conclusion that he died of asphyxia from accidental suffocation."

Revere, Dawes Ride Again Through Arlington Monday; Parade To Highlight Patriot's Day

Leaving For Germany

JIMMY BRISTOR, 4, and his younger brother Alan, eight months old, will leave soon with their mother, Mrs. C.L. Bristor of 28 Wall St., to join Mr. Bristor in Frankfurt, Germany, where he is a civilian employee in the Army's meteorological division. Mrs. Bristor and the two children will leave Arlington April 26, sailing from New York a day or two later. They expect to remain in Germany possibly three years.

Paul Revere and William Dawes, Jr., who rode through Arlington (then Menotomy) in 1775 to rouse the Minutemen, will ride again on Monday, Patriot's Day.

Horsemen representing both the famous revolutionary riders will reach Arlington town hall in a blare of band music at 12 noon, leaving again shortly afterward to complete their historic ride to Lexington and Concord.

A parade of military and civic groups, strating at 10:15 o'clock, will be another highlight of the day's observance here. There will be a flag raising, services at the burying ground, and a concert at town hall from 11:45 till 12:30.

The day's ceremonies will open at 8 o'clock with a formal flag raising at town hall by Boy Scouts.

PARADE AT 10:15

The parade, due to get under way at 10:15 o'clock, will form at 10 o'clock on Allen St., its right resting on Broadway. It will proceed on Broadway to Mass Ave. and to the burying ground on Pleasant St., where the entire contingent will halt for services scheduled to begin at 10:45.

A proclamation by the Governor will be read by a Boy Scout, while Rev. John Nicol, chaplain of Arlington Post 9 of the American Legion will intone an invocation and deliver an address.

"TAPS" AT CEMETERY

A wreath will then be placed on the Revolutionary War monument by Daughters of the American Revolution, after which a volley will be fired by a firing squad from the Legion, and "taps" will be sounded.

The ceremonies at the burying ground will close with the "Star Spangled Banner" by the Legion band.

Reforming at 11:15, the parade will proceed down Pleasant St. to Mass. Ave., to Bartlett Ave., and

New Tax Rate $44.20, Jump Of Only $1.40

Arlington's tax rate for 1948 will be $44.20, an increase of $1.40 from last year's $42.80, it was announced Wednesday morning by the board of Assessors.

The assessors set the rate at a meeting Monday, but approval then had to be obtained from State Tax Commissioner Henry F. Long before it could become official.

Approval was promptly forthcoming.

The new rate, made public by Chairman William O. Hauser of the assessors, represents a much smaller increase than had been generally expected in view of mounting municipal expenses and appropriations made at town meeting.

Re-Burial Here Today For Pvt. J. Quinlan

The body of Pvt. James R. Quinlan, who was killed in Epinal, France, on Feb. 3, 1945, the day before his 20th birthday—arrived in Arlington Tuesday and will be re-buried today, Thursday, in the family plot in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

A military funeral, in charge of th American Legion, will be held from the Grannon Funeral Home, with solemn high mass of requiem at St. Agnes Church at 9. Six of the young soldier's friends will act as pallbearers.

Pvt. Quinlan was the son of Martin J. and Hannah (Fleming) Quinlan, of 64 Webster St. He is survived also by two brothers, Martin Jr., who was wounded in France, and Joseph.

The young soldier was a native of Arlington and before entering Army Service was a welder at the Charlestown Navy Yard. He served with Company M, 7th Infantry, Third Division, Seventh Army.

About Town With Muriel

BY MURIEL MacDONALD MURPHY

WED AT A NUPTIAL MASS, Miss Margaret Patricia Coyne, last Saturday became the bride of Mr. Gerald Joseph Callahan son of Mr. and Mrs. John Callahan of Warren St., with a cousin of the bridegroom, the Rev. Cornelius Sexton of Newburg, N. Y., officiating at the ceremony performed in St. Agnes Church.

Gowned in ivory satin, her full length illusion veil caught to a matching satin headress, the bride daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Andrew Coyne of Lewis Ave., was given in marriage by her father. From her white satin prayer book, topped by a white orchid, fell a cascade of ribbons knotted with ephanotis.

As honor maid, Miss Nancie Coyne of Arlington, sister of the bride, wore a gown of yellow taffete and marquisetts. Her bouquet of gladioli and hyacinths matched her natural flower headpiece. n ee-green taffeta, Miss Helen Young and Miss Catherine Smith, both of Arlington, carried spring bouquets of tulips, iris and jonquils and wore matching flower headpieces.

Mr. William F. Callahan of Arlington, brother of the bridegroom served as best man. As ushers were Mr. James Martin Coyne of Lawrence, brother of the bride and Mr. James H. Burke of Waltham, a cousin of the bridegroom.

After a wedding breakfast in the American Legion Hall, the couple left for a wedding trip to New York and Washington. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Callahan will reside in Arlington.

WEARING TRADITIONAL WHITE SATIN, a wreath of orange blossom holding her finger tip veil of tulle. Miss Catherine Veronica McCarthy, daughter of Arlington and the late Mr. McCarthy, recently was wed to Mr. Joseph Patrick Sullivan of Dorchester.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Mr. Charles P. McCarthy of Arlington, the bride carried a white prayer book with two white orchids.

As only attendant for her sister, Miss Ann McCarthy wore a gown and hat of aqua chiffon. Tea roses formed her bouquet. Mr. Edward Sullivan of Dorchester served as best man for his brother. Mr. William Quinn of Dorchester and Mr. George Bonda of Medford were ushers.

A wedding breakfast and reception was held at the Hotel Commander in Cambridge.

Mrs. Sullivan is a graduate of Burdett College. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sullivan of Dorchester is a veteran of Navy service in the South Pacific. The couple will make their home in Jamaica Plain after an automobile trip to Canada.

MARRIED IN ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Miss Ruth Jane Gorell, daughter of Mr. Alfred Edward Gorell of Arlington became the bride of Mr. John Caldwell Clement, Jr., of Arlington at a ceremony performed by the Rev. Halsey I. Andrews.

In gray faille, her green hat and accessories complimenting her suit the bride had a corsage of lillies-of-the-valley. Attending her sister was Miss Eleanor B. Gorell in a street-length print dress with a corsage of spring flowers. Mr. David Warren of Boston was best man.

The bride served with the WAVES during World War II. A graduate of the University of Maine, the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Clement of Belfast, Me., saw service as a Navy flier in Europe, Africa and South America.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement will make their home in Lexington after a wedding trip to Cape Cod.

AT NUPTIALS PERFORMED in the Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre, Miss Jean Frances Peirce, daughter of Mrs. F. Lincoln Peirce and the late Mr. Peirce last Saturday became the bride of Mr. John J. Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Sullivan of Springfield, formerly of Arlington. With the Right Rev. Mgr. Eric McKenzie officiating at the ceremony, Miss Peirce was escorted to the flowered decorated altar by her cousin Mr. Pul G. Pfeffer of Franklin. Wearing a portrait gown of blush slipper satin, her finger tip veil of illusion trimmed with Duchess lace, the bride carried a cascaded bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and white snapdragons.

As honor maid, Miss Ann Sullivan of Arlington wore a gown of orchid faille with matching hat of tulle and carried a bouquet of shaded pink snapdragons. Carrying bouquets of lavender and purple snapdragons, the bridesmaids, the Misses Helen G. Manning of Brookline and Janet P. Van Urmersen of Newtonville were in similar gowns and hats of sea green faille.

For her receiving duties at the wedding reception in the Hotel Beaconsfield, Mrs. Pierce chose a mauve hat with her blue lace gown. Her corsage was of orchids. In pink crepe with matching hat, the bridegroom's mother wore a corsage of lavender orchids.

Mr. Francis Hardy of Somerville was best man while the ushers corps included Mr. Walter Eagen and Mr. Teddy Desmond, both of Arlington; Mr. Vincent Wassell of Thompson, Ct., and Mr. Wallis Bernard of Newtonville.

The bride attended Bradford Junior College. Her husband, a graduate of Providence College, served in the Naval Reserve during the war. Following their wedding trip to Canada, the couple will make their home in Springfield.

CARRYING A BOUQUET OF WHITE sweet peas and staphanotis, Miss Margaret Jefferson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Jefferson of Amsten St., was married last Saturday to Ensign Robert Wellesley Totten, son of Mrs. Robert W. Totten of Arlington at a ceremony performed in the Immaculate Conception church North Cambridge. The Rev. Bernard Herlihy of the Church of the Assumption, cousin of the bridegroom, officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore ivory satin, her full length veil caught to a wreath of orange blossoms. Three sister of the bride were her attendants. Rita Jefferson, as maid of honor, wore a gown and headpiece of blue while Miss Dorothy Jefferson and Miss Patricia Jefferson were gowned in yellow. They all carried bouquets of spring flowers. Performing the duties of best man for his brother was Mr. Paul Totten of Arlington. Mr. Thomas Kenna and Mr. John Connor, both of Arlington were the ushers.

After the reception and breakfast at the Hotel Continental in Cambridge, Ensign and Mrs. Totten left on a wedding trip to Washington and Virginia.

ANNOUNCEMENT HAS BEEN MADE by Mr. Thomas M. Semonian, now of Concord and formerly of Arlington, of the engagement of his daughter, Miss Marjorie Jean to Mr. Jean Campiche, son of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Campiche of Zurich, Switzerland. A graduate of Emerson College and the University of Colorado, School of Journalism, Miss Semonian studied at the University of Zurich. Her fiancé received his bachelor's and Ph. D. degrees from the Polytechnical University in Zurich. He is now associated with a Swiss firm in Mexico City. Plans for a Fall wedding are being made.

States Navy in World War II.

MAKING FALL WEDDING is Miss Christine Driscoll whose engagement to Mr. William L. Cullen has been announced by her parents Mr. and Mrs. John B. Driscoll of Arlington.

Mr. Cullen is the son of Mrs. John A. Cullen of West Medford.

Miss Barbara Ann Vincent whose engagement to Mr. Robert E. Trainor has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Vincent of Park Ave.

Miss Vincent was graduated from Green Mountain College in Vermont. Mr. Trainor, also of Arlington, served with the United States Navy in World War II.

side the walls of A. H. S., it's her singing (and what an intriguing alto voice she has) that occupies a good part of her time. Popular ballads are her specialty. Designing/dresses holds some fascination for her, too, prefers some one else to carry out her ideas in actual construction, though.) Barbara studied ballet with Mary Corbett Burns for four years, during which she and fellow dancers performed for various Veteran Hospitals.

On the sports side, baseball seems a great favorite with her, both from the watching and participating standpoint. In the summer she utilizes her membership in the Medford Boat Club by sailing comets on the Mystic Lakes.

The future for Barb holds four years at an academic college. Jackson or Radcliffe will probably be her alma mater. If this talented lass follows her true ambition for post college years, Arlington may find itself proud to claim a renowned singer as its former resident. Barbara hopes to become an orchestra singer and go on to make records. With the ambition that is so obviously hers, she should see "a dream come true" not to many years hence.

Dog Birds To Be Seen At Trials

Several Arlington dog fanciers are planning to attend the field trials to be held by the Setter Club of New England at Carlisle, April 17 and 18.

This will be an opportunity for setter enthusiasts to see some of New England's finest bird dog work on liberated quail. All are welcome to attend.

Commendable Procedure

We like the method employed by the selectmen to decide which type of parking meter to select for installation in Arlington's business centers.

Five citizens were named to committee to study the various types of meters submitted. And in order that the members of this committee might be free of interference or pressure, their names were kept a close secret.

The five citizens, as it happened, decided unanimously in favor of ONE of the meters—the same type that has been installed in Cambridge and elsewhere. The selectmen this week followed the committee's recommendation, the contract was placed—and we have one bit of town business which can never come under criticism.

A Reasonable Tax Rate

The three members of the Board of Assessors are to be commended for keeping Arlington's 1948 tax rate down to $44.20.

Predictions before town meeting were generally much higher. Even the finance committee figured a couple of dollars higher.

In view of increased municipal expenses, higher cost of fire protection under the 48-hour week, and appropriations made this year for a new school and other capital expenditures, an increase in taxes of only $1.40 would seem to reflect very careful figuring on the part of the assessors.

A Dangling Threat

Town authorities cannot start too soon to tear down the old Peirce and Winn property, at Mass. Ave. and Mystic St.—particularly the decrepit, tottering fence at the rear of the property on Winslow St.

This fence—already half on the ground—is a danger to anyone passing close to it, especially to children who are playing about the abandoned property.

The fence—is not worth repairing, for it's coming down anyway. But we hope town authorities get to levelling it BEFORE it topples on a passerby.

Kings Daughters Slated To Elect

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected by Good Samaritan Circle, Order of Kings Daughters and Sons, at the Circle's annual meeting and luncheon next Wednesday, April 21, at the home of Mrs. James Wood, 35 Peter Tufts Rd.

Mrs. John Buckler and Mrs. Harold Summers will be assisting hostesses, while assisting with the luncheon will be Mrs. Edward Richards, Mrs. Charles Mellen, Mrs. Lorimer Higgins.

Nominations of new officers will be brought in by Mrs. Allen Cowie, Mrs. Arthur Crampton and Mrs. Frederick Merriam.

he county convention will be held April 28 at the West Somerville Baptist Church.

Joseph Darrigo, 9, of 1334 Mass. Ave., was taken to Symmes Hospital for treatment Friday after he fell on a tin can in a yard on Mass. Ave., near Paul Revere Rd., and cut his thumb.

Walter Powers, 67, Heart Attack Victim

Taken suddenly ill while riding on a Hudson Bus Line bus at Ashland and Appleton Sts., Sunday evening, Walter E. Powers, 67, of 184 Appleton St., was pronounced dead of a heart attack when taken to Symmes Hospital in a police car.

Mr. Powers, who for 26 years has been a shipper for Kanes Furniture Co. in Boston, had been in ill health since October. He set out Sunday evening, in the belief of his family, merely to enjoy a bus ride, but he had been on the bus only a few minutes when he was stricken ill.

The bus driver took him to the office of Dr. Alfred Weller, 1 Park Circle, who gave him emergency aid and then summoned police. Mr. Powers was pronounced dead, however, upon arrival at the hospital.

Born in Boston, Mr. Powers had long been a resident of Arlington. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Sarah (Dannehy) Powers; three sons, Joseph and Walter of this town and William, in the Navy; one daughter, Miss Esther Powers and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday from the D.W. Grannan and Son Funeral Home, with solemn high mass of requiem at St. James' Church at 9 and burial in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Boy Needs A Shirt

Some little boy in East Arlington must be sorely in need of a new shirt.

A Mrs. Tehley of 164a Mass. Ave. phoned the police Friday afternoon that a boy had tried to steal a shirt hanging on a clothesline at the rear of her home.

She frightened the boy away, she said.

I WONDER if the five pupils at St. Agnes School who won scholarships aren't to be congratulated?

firmation Hymn, Cardinal O'Connell Hymnal; O Esca Viatorum, Gregorian; Tantum Ergo, Gregorian.

A special musical program will be given also at the 4 o'clock service at St. James Church, Mass. Ave., and Appleton St., where the Dominican Sisters who have taught the children in advance of confirmation will be in charge of the musical program and Rev. Charles A. McCarthy will assist the Archbishop.

I Wonder?

I WONDER how many have observed the fine coat of tan that Walter Croston of Churchill Ave., has brought back with him after his annual trip to Florida?

WONDER why Louise, of the pharmacy at Mass. Ave., and Windsor, is always smiling?

I WONDER if Atty. and Mrs. William McClellan of Arlington Heights, who left on a Spring visit to the national capital, will be impressed with the sights there?

WONDER how many know John Carr of Glenburn Rd., Arlington Heights, Boston clothing merchant, and the interest he takes in local community affairs?

I WONDER if Arlington will take advantage of the opportunity to provide veterans' housing under the state aid bill just passed in Boston?

I WONDER how many budding entertainers have been lined up for the forthcoming Legion minstrels?

I WONDER if a poetry-writing contest between Henry Keenan Sr. and Earl Ryder wouldn't be quite interesting?

I WONDER if Warren Ryan, of Webcowet Rd., can be surprised when it comes to developing prowess and loyalty among the boys on the team he so successfully manages?

I WONDER how Frank Goguen of Cleveland St., feels now that he has recovered from his operation and the subsequent siege of years old in May. He graduated from Bridgewater State Teachers College in 1901, and from Harvard in 1905.

Mr. and Mrs. Gammons live at 179 Jason St., and have three grown sons, two of whom are teachers.

The assistant principal at Arlington High is Raymond Morrill, who has held that post since 1931.

Meter

The identity of this committee was kept secret so that no interference nor pressure would interfere with an impartial choice.

The selectmen were authorized by vote of town meeting in November, 1947, to investigate various types of meters and to secure them under such terms and conditions as they deemed best.

Under the terms of the contract approved this week, the meter company has 30 days to make delivery, and 30 additional days to install the machines, which are to be placed along Mass. Ave., in Arlington Center, and also in certain parts of East Arlington.

The meters will go in operation on a six month's trial basis, during which the company will receive 50 per cent of receipts. This arrangement will continue, after formal acceptance at the end of six months, until the purchase price is paid.

end of the school term in June after 28 years in the position.

Mr. Gammons' plans for after retirement are not definite, but he said this week he hoped to spend his winters in Florida and that he may establish his permanent home on the Cape. He likes fishing and golf, and hopes now to have a chance to really indulge in these sports.

Principal Gammons has been teaching 44 years and will be 68 years old in May. He graduated from Bridgewater State Teachers College in 1901, and from Harvard in 1905.

Mr. and Mrs. Gammons live at 179 Jason St., and have three grown sons, two of whom are teachers.

The assistant principal at Arlington High is Raymond Morrill, who has held that post since 1931.

Auto Repair Shop Permit Is Sustained

The action of the Arlington selectmen in issuing a permit for an auto repair shop at 25 Franklin St., has been upheld by State Fire Marshal Everett I. Flanders.

Mr. Flanders, who conducted a hearing last week on an appeal filed by Stewart M. Whitehouse of 26 Franklin St., who sought to have the permit invalidated, notified the selectmen Monday that he had dismissed the appeal.

With certain changes in the building at 25 Franklin St., such as a rear exit door, safety requirements will be met and there will be no fire or explosion hazard, he said.

Two World War II veterans plan to open a repair shop in the Franklin S. building, which is owned by Daniel and Minnie Barry.

A tool shed at the Arlington Coal and Lumber Co., 41 Park Ave., was broken into sometime Friday night. Nothing of value, however, was taken, according to officials of the company.

Historical Society To Mark 50th Year With Open House Next Week

Open house will be held Monday Patriot's Day, from 2 to 5 p. m. at the Jason House, Mass. Ave., and Jason St., headquarters of the The Arlington Historical Society. The house, which has been described as a fine example of the dwelling of a well-to-do farmer of the 18th century, contains an extensive collection of relics of revolutionary days.

The Arlington Historical Society which acquired the house in 1923, is observing its 50th anniversary, and the Jason Russell House will be open to the public also on Sunday from 3 to 5 p. m., and every day next week—after Monday—from 10 to 1 and 3 to 5.

Willed $10,000, Scouts Plan To Develop Camp

Approximately $10,000 was left to the Arlington Boy Scouts by the late Mabel Thompson, it was announced at a meeting last week of the Arlington District of Sackem Scout Council.

The trustees of the fund have decided to use the money to develop the Camp Oak area in Bedford. This will allow scouts to get their basic training out of doors in preparation for their district Camporees and Camporalls and for summer camping at Camp Sackem in Antrim, N. H.

On Saturday, April 24, the scouts and scouts of Sackem Council will spend the entire day working to improve Camp Oak under a program outlined by the development committee consisting of Hollis MacDougall, Frank Doran and Willis Munroe.

For the rest of the second, Arlington worked hard to produce a 2-1 lead. Roger Beardsley singled to right and moved to second on Paul Dacey's sacrifice. Then on Brad Donovan's hit to center, Beardsley set sail for the plate only to be nailed by an exceptional Dick Schultz throw. Donovan however, scored later on an error.

The third brought up Leary again, this time with three on, none out. Don Hodgins and Warren Bowen singled in that order, and Dick Raia was passed. Little Bill singled to left scoring two runners.

With Tom Coughlin rolling along smoothly on the Arlington mound despite six Arlington errors—gave up eight hits, four of the infield variety—Newton didn't score again until the ninth. There with one out, hits by pinch hitter Frank Tanner and Fred Stephens and an error helped Tanner go all the way around.

The Arlington team, which met Watertown Tuesday, is slated to clash with Brookline in that town this Friday night, while a game with Waltham—in that city—is set for next Tuesday.

Aid Troop 5 Camp Fund

The Boy Scout Troop Five Fund received a substantial boost from the returns of a very successful "Dessert-Bridge" held at the Arlington Gas Co., kitchen under the auspices of the Mothers' Auxiliary of the troop.

Contributing to the success of the enterprise, were the energetic efforts of the chairman, Mrs. Herbert Dick, and her co-chairman, Mrs. John Jones and Mrs. Harold Croft; the generosity of the gas company and its genial hostess, Mrs. Cheever, and the responsive turnout of members and friends of Troop Five.

Seated at the tables attractively decorated and with a centerpiece of live jonquills in vases, which were later awarded as bridge prizes, a delicious dessert was served by Mrs. Cheever and staff after which the afternoon was devoted to bridge.

They Steal Anything!

Judge Connelly Places Blame For Delinquency On Family 'Upheavels'

"Juvenile delinquency stems primarily from a disruption of family life," members of St. Agnes' Holy Name Society were told Sunday by Judge John J. Connelly of the Boston Juvenile Court.

"Society," he said, "is no better nor worse than the family which comprise it and which are its foundation. When family life is disturbed by economic or other causes, and natural family cohesion is upset, then we have the seed of delinquency."

"It is in sections where those conditions are most aggravated that we find most examples of a drifting away from the standard of conduct set up by the Church."

Judge Connelly assailed "crack-pots" and pseudo scientists who make the front page headlines "by being startling rather than logical."

"The philosophy that every man is a law unto himself," he said, "has been carried into the field of psychiatry, where instead of trying to correct the erring ways of youth they ascribe the errors to 'inhibitions'. The only way to reduce the case load of juvenile delinquency is for parents to realize the responsibilities upon them. Action should be based on spiritual grounds."

A short circuit in the motor of an oil burner caused a blaze early Sunday in the basement of the home of Michael Berman, at 1466 Mass. Ave. Members of Engine 1 extinguished the flames.

Warrene Lajoie of Grade Eight won a scholarship to the Matignon Central High School.

Tribute To Memory Of Lt. Barry

Tribute was paid to the memory of the late Police Lieut. Daniel P. Barry at a general assembly Tuesday of the Arlington Police Association, at the Hardy School.

Town Clerk Earl Ryder read a poem of his own composition, previously published in the Press, and a formal resolution adopted by the association also was read.

The meeting was the first under the association's 1948 officers, with John C. Keefe in the chair as new president.

Gerry Hearn, Boston Post sports writer, spoke. There was a question period, and discussion of the forthcoming baseball season.

Auto Hits Tree; 2 Hurt

Two persons were injured Saturday at 9 a. m. when their car crashed into a tree at Westminster and Westmoreland Aves.

The driver, Edward T. Coyne of 33 Irvington St., Somerville, suffered cuts about the head and face and a possible concussion, while a passenger, Gladys Coyne, 26, complained of injuries to both knees.

Both were taken to Symmes Hospital in the police ambulance for treatment.

Troop Greets Scoutmaster

Boy Scout Troop 7 welcomed its new scoutmaster, Bernie Forest, at a meeting Friday in Junior High East.

The new troop committee also began functioning at this time. The committee consists of Eugene Lawlor, chairman; William Doherty, publicity; Wilfred Leveille and Paul Keating, advancement; Joseph Quinn, treasurer, and Ralph LaValle, out door man.

Hospital

suite will be of the most modern design with complete isolation from all other nursing units.

The medical and surgical unit will occupy the entire second floor of the enlarged institution and will provide a normal capacity of 49 beds.

The Pediatric Floor (children's ward) will have modern facilities with a normal capacity of 18 pediatric beds and a segregated treatment room nursing unit.

The x-ray department, laboratory, emergency room and operating rooms will be revamped and modernized.

The facilities for visitors will be expended with waiting rooms in each unit of the hospital.

The service units of the hospital will be enlarged to some degree; the most important being in the dietary department. This department is to be expanded to provide adequate dietary service to all patients and hospital personnel. It will have a separate division for special diets which are ordered for patients by the attending physician. A formula room, where formulae for new born infants will be prepared under strictly aseptic technique, is to be separate feature of the dietary department.

Each nursing unit will have a revamped diet kitchen.

A new boiler room, separated from the hospital building, will give adequate service to the enlarged facilities.

Minor changes are contemplated in the existing structure which will make the care of patients more adequate and efficient.

One new elevator will be installed and a second new elevator will replace the existing one.

New sub-utility rooms in all nursing units will expedite the care of patients.

The overall length of the new building is 102 feet and will join the existing building on the west end and extend around the crest of the hill.

Kendall, Taylor and Company of Boston, are the architects. The detailed plans are now being drawn and the Board of Trustees anticipate bids within the next three months construction will start as soon hereafter as feasible.

Seek 500 First Aid Instructors Here, To Meet Any Emergency

A request for additional resident of Arlington to volunteer as Red Cross first aid instructors has been made by the Boston Chapter of Red Cross.

"We are setting a goal of 500 instructors so that we may be completely prepared should any national emergency arise," said Dr. Edward Hamlin, first aid chairman.

Eight Arlington residents are now among the 216 volunteer first aid instructors in the Boston Chapter of Red Cross who have been appointed or re-appointed first aid instructors for 1948, Dr. Hamlin said.

Their qualifications to teach Red Cross first aid methods, the chairman declared, have been determined by a yearly examination supplemented by a refresher course in techniques or by active teaching in the candidates have engaged during the previous year. During 1948 these instructors will teach free first aid courses open to any

CONCERT BY BANDS

The concert at town hall, by several bands, will be from 11:45 to 12:30, and at high noon—when "Paul Revere" and "William Daves, Jr." gallop into town—the fire whistles will sound a "1-7-7-5" salute.

Town officials and Daughters of the American Revolution will join in a reception to the riders. Revere will depart for Lexington at 12:30 and Dawes at 12:35.

Richard D. Noy, general chairman of this year's Patriot's Day celebration, urges all home owners and business men to display the flag Monday.

PARADE MARSHALL AIDES

Aides on Mr. Noy's committee will be: Helen C. Dahill, secretary; Sgt. Jake W. Lindsay, Congressional Medal of Honor man, parade chief marshal; George E. Bonney, chief of Staff; Joseph S. Vahney, VFW post commander; a Lee Morris, DAV post commander; Joseph C. Spears, commandant, Marine Corps League; William J. McKeever, Legion post commander.

Also represented on the committee are the United Spanish war veterans and auxiliary, American Legion Auxiliary, VFW auxiliary DVA auxiliary, Marine Corps League auxiliary, Daughters of Union Veterans, Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls.

member of the public over 12 years of age.

Last year 246 courses were taught in greater Boston and 2,468 certificates in standard First Aid 402 in advanced first aid and 105 instructor certificates were issued to students. Also 269 Junior certificate were issued.

Local resident on the list of Red Cross first aid instructors now include: Thomas H. Callahan, Henrietta DeBenedicti, Marjorie H. Freeman James J. Geagon, Horace H. Homer, Elizabeth S. Lawson, Pearl R. Peterson, Henry W. Schreiber, Jr.

APRIL SHOWERS are not half so bright as the diamonds at Swanson's Jewelry Store, at 695 Mass. Ave. If you're thinking in terms of engagement rings, have a look at his front window, the one at the left. And if you're past the engagement and ready for the shower, there are ever so many silver patterns to choose from. Whether you've always wanted silver just like grandmother's or if you yearn for the long, clean lines of the new Swedish, Swanson's has everything to help you make your choice.

YOU CAN BUY LEISURE, in the form of a new Maytag Dutch Oven Gas Range, at Gahm and Erickson Co., Inc., 448 Mass. Ave. What the new Maytag does is to enable you to cook an entire dinner without staying home for some three hours to do it. All that you have to do is prepare your foods in the usual way, set the oven at the proper temperature, then set the Automatic Control for the correct time, (indicated in an accompanying chart). Then you are free; while you are away the gas will be turned off automatically and your meal will continue to cook. A saving in fuel as well as in valuable leisure time.

GREEN GROW THE LILACS, as well as your grass, if you will follow the advice of R.W. Shattuck, 444-446 Mass. Ave. They recommend first of all, lime to sweeten the soil, and secondly, a good fertilizer, one that's suited to your needs. They have a special fertilizer for lawns and landscaping, "Corenco" by name, while for vegetable gardens they suggest their "5-8-7". They also have the well-known "Vigoro", and "Bovung", a convenient dehydrated fertilizer. Take four particular gardening problems to R.W. Shattuck, and they will try to advise you how to meet them most successfully.

SPRING FEVER has a cure, and it's waiting for you at the Bud Shops, 309 Broadway. They have blouses as gay and exciting as any mood of yours. The cottons are especially good, bright as a ribbon, do up like a hanky. Any one of them is guaranteed to inject new life into a winter-weary wardrobe and cater to your spring-time whims.

THE SONG OF THE OPEN ROAD may be sounding in your ears, but it isn't going to do you any good if your car is still winter-bound. Mystic Valley Motors, at 94 Mystic Street, has a remedy for this; first, they suggest a thorough overhaul of the motor, secondly, an alignment of the steering system by the Bear Alignment System (to correct any shimmy your car may have picked up jouncing and bouncing over the snowy ruts this winter.)

A STITCH IN TIME, that is during the next month or two, will provide you with a flock of the fresh, cool, crisp kind of dress July always makes you wish for. The Fabric Shop, 479 Mass. Ave. has a collection of cottons, lawns, and basistes that should inspire even the most reluctant seamstress. See their gingham at $8.99!

THE WAY TO A MAN'S HEART, especially now that Lent is over, is still through his stomach. For something special in the line of food walk past Freddie's Doughnuts at 156 Mass. Ave. We guarantee that you won't be able to resist going in. For the strong-willed only; fourteen different kinds of doughnut is almost too much to choose from when each is so good.

Three Hurt As Boys Stone Arlington Train

At least three Arlington persons were painfully but fortunately not seriously injured Monday evening when they were spattered with fragments of glass as boys stoned a Boton Arlington evening train.

The stoning, in which the window of one passenger coach was smashed, occurred while the 5:43 p. m. train from Boston was passing through Cambridge.

Boston & Maine officials are said to have made a prompt report of the incident to Cambridge police, but the young culprits escaped detection.

One of those hurt was John J. Begley of 2 Belton St., a mechanical engineer, who was struck on the left cheek. Seated behind him, Mrs. Muriel MacDonald Murphy, a columnist for the Press was showered with tiny pieces of glass—some of them about the right eye.

Gusty Wind Breaks Two Store Windows

Two stores lost plate glass windows to Friday night's gale-like winds. A large eight-square-foot window on the Franklin St. side of the Berkeley Cue, Inc., store on Broadway caved in, and a front window at Green Bros. Market, 1348 Mass. Ave., likewise collapsed under the force of the strong gusts.

Glaziers were kept busy replacing panes of glass in other parts of town, but in these cases boys with stones and a poor aim—or a good aim, perhaps—were the cause.

Patrolman Francis Cook found a window of the Forest Pharmacy at 1177 Mass. Ave., shattered by a rock Saturday, and stood by till the owner reached the scene.

Sunday morning Patrolman Agostino Manderino discovered a rear window in Jane's Dress Shop, 820 Mass. Ave., smashed in and Patrolman Armando Lucarelli found a smashed window at O'Connell's 1115 Mass. Ave.

Three school buildings suffered over the weekend, one window was broken at the Peirce School and another at the Cutter School, while the Hardy School lost two windows.

30 New Members In Chapter Of Hadassah

Thirty new members have joined the Arlington Chapter of Hadassah and a tea in their honor was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Blauer of Belmont.

At the chapter's meeting April 6, it was announced that three members—Mrs. Max Gerber, Mrs. Milton Berman and Mrs. H. Karp—have become life members. Mrs. David Katsess presented the major political aspects of the present-day Palestinian situation.

A report on the Jewish National Fund was given by the chairman, Mrs. Morris Zellin, who also collected contributions from members' blue boxes. Mrs. Milton Berman to contribute clothing and household supplies for overseas survivors.

The chapter's new officers for the year are: Mrs. S. Doctoroff president; Mrs. M. Berman, first vice-president; Mrs. D. Banen, second vice president; Mrs. J. Dickerman, treasurer; Mrs. A. Rose, recording secretary; Mrs. I. Sholkin, financial secretary; Mrs. L. Doctoroff, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. Kellum, special secretary.

Honking Auto Horn, At 2 A. M. Is Traced To Locked Garage

The slumber of a number of residents in the vicinity of 158 Mystic Valley Parkway was rudely shattered at 2 o'clock Saturday morning by a honking auto horn—and a most persistent one.

It wasn't long before the phone began ringing at police headquarters: angry citizens wanted their sleep.

Police traced the honking horn to a garage at No. 158—but no one was at fault. The offending car was parked in the garage, and the horn just started honking by itself.

The owner of the car was traced and contacted, but it was some time before quiet was restored to the neighborhood.

'Circus Priest' To Speak

The famous circus priest, the Rev. E. Sullivan of Cambridge, will be the speaker at a meeting tonight (Thursday) of Pack 7, Cub Scouts in St. Agnes school hall.

Rev. Fr. Sullivan will show the moving picture, "Circus Life."

VISITING FAMILY

Mrs. Harold J. (Marion Holmes) MacDonald, of Scarsdale, N. Y., is visiting her family at 88 Paul Revere Rd., and on Tuesday was tendered a birthday party.

PRESENT MINSTRELS

The Class of 1948 at the McLean Hospital of Nursing in Waverly, of which Miss Rosemary McCarthy of Hamlet St., Arlington, is class president, presented its annual minstrel show Tuesday evening.
